Governor describes exposition of Holy Relics of Lord Buddha as a sacred moment for Arunachal Pradesh

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), has described the sacred exposition of the Holy Relics of Lord Buddha Shakyamuni at Tawang, and Bomdila later in Namsai as a momentous spiritual occasion that will deepen faith, strengthen cultural bonds and inspire peace and harmony in society.

The Governor said that Arunachal Pradesh is blessed with a rich Buddhist heritage, where the teachings of Lord Buddha have nurtured compassion, wisdom, non-violence and peaceful coexistence for centuries. He said that the exposition offers devotees a rare and deeply moving opportunity to pay their respects to the sacred relics and experience a profound spiritual connection with the Enlightened One. Beyond its religious significance, the occasion reminds humanity that lasting progress must be founded on inner peace, ethical conduct, kindness and respect for all living beings.

The Governor expressed hope that the sacred occasion would awaken compassion in every heart, inspire the younger generation to cherish India's spiritual heritage and strengthen the collective resolve to build a peaceful, inclusive and harmonious society.

On behalf of the people of Arunachal Pradesh, the Governor expressed his sincere gratitude to the Ministry of Culture, the National Museum, New Delhi, the International Buddhist Confederation and the Holy Relics of Shakyamuni Buddha Darshan Coordination Committee, Itanagar, for facilitating this historic exposition.
