

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Chief Minister releases Photographic Collection of Governor's programmes and events

Chief Minister Shri Pema Khandu released the Photographic Collection of Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri P.B. Acharya's programmes and events from 28th January to 6th May 2017, titled 'Towards the vision of New India' at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 12th May 2017.

Releasing the book, the Chief Minister said that in the last 100 days, Shri Acharya has immensely contributed towards the State reflecting his close association with the State since 1960s. He expressed his gratitude to the Governor for recommending regarding Autonomous Puroik Welfare board which the State Cabinet approved, while adding that some obsolete rules must delete as it create hindrance in providing welfare measures to the targeted people.

The Chief Minister wished that Shri Acharya continues as the regular Governor as later is well aware of the people and challenges.

Thanking the Chief Minister for release the pictorial collection about him, the Governor said that empowered and educated people must aid and assist the disadvantage section of the people. He emphasised on change of mind set and utilization of dormant energies such as students, ex-servicemen, housewife, red cross, scouts and guides and universities.

Speaking on the occasion, Chief Secretary Smt Shakuntala Gamlin said that Shri Acharya has upheld the dignity of the office, while Secretary to Governor Shri Vinod P Kavle gave a brief on the 100 days of the Governor. Shri Bapir Megu, Under Secretary to Governor, who also spoke on the occasion said that the book is a testimony of his love for people and called him 'Friends of the Tribal people'.

State's First Lady Smt Kavita Acharya, Speaker Er. T.N. Thongdok, Deputy Chief Minister Shri Chowna Mein, State ministers, senior officers, State BJP President Shri Tapir Gao and special invitees also attended the function.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, May 12, 2017

