You are the nation builders. Motivate the students and help them excel in their lives: Governor to teachers

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri P.B Acharya, who is on a four day district tour of Lower Subansiri and Upper Subansiri made a surprise visit to Government Higher secondary School, Yazali on 27th June 2017 enroute to Ziro. He interacted with the teachers and the staffs.

Expressing his concern about the pass percentage of the school, the Governor advised the teachers to work with dedication and sincerity.

“You are the nation builders. Motivate the students and help them excel in their lives,” Governor added.

Emphasizing on the need to avoid disparity amongst tribal and non tribal students in the distribution of textbooks, uniforms and other provisions, he said that we have to grow up together irrespective of our ethnicity and create a harmonious society.

The Governor enquired about mid day meals and Beti Bachao Beti Paro. He also asked to school teachers to organize Swaach Bharat Abhiyan in the school campus regularly.

Later at Ziro, the Governor was received by Shri Kemo Lollen Deputy Commissioner, Shri Bomge Kamduk, SP and District Heads of Departments at the Ziro circuit house.

In a brief interactive session with the HoDs, the Governor advised them to have a greater sense of responsibility and accountability towards the duties assigned.

Terming Education, Power and Connectivity as three vital elements to usher in development, the Governor further advised the HoDs to prepare a roadmap of the activities to be initiated by the concern department and strive hard to archive targets. With better connectivity tourism will flourish in this area, he added.

The Governor suggested for building clean public utilities on the way from Itanagar to Ziro for the tourists. He further advised the Power to take up projects to generate power from alternate energy sources as well.

He also enquired about the Fish cum rice cultivation and the organic chain movement of Ziro.

Later, the Governor left for Raga, an ADC Headquarter in Lower Subansiri District, located in between Ziro and Daporijo, District Hq of Upper Subansiri District.
