PRESS RELEASE

Government officers must be through about various welfare scheme and programmes: Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri PB Acharya, in his final leg of four-day two district tours of Upper and Lower Subansiri Districts met the District Heads of Department of Lower Subansiri District at Ziro, on 30th June 2017. Parliamentary Secretary for Food and Civil Supplies cum local MLA Er. Tage Taki, Lower Subansiri Deputy Commissioner Shri Kemo Lollen and Superintendent of Police Shri Bomge Kamduk along with officers from various departments attended the meeting.

The Governor said that the government officers must be through about various welfare scheme and programmes. The below par accomplishment in implementation reflects the lethargy and indifferent approach of the officials. He urged upon the officers to enrol at least five persons in Jan Dhan Yojana, Mudra Bank and other schemes.

The Governor asked the MLA and DC to take initiatives. He advised the Bankers, Social Welfare Department and Aadhar Card agencies to put in a concerted effort as a team. He also suggested the officials, involving lady officers to brainstorm on Beti Bachao Beti Padhao programme so that every girl child benefits from it.

The Governor called for strict monitoring to ensure that there is no injustice to anyone. He also asked the Universities in Ziro to carry out research work on harnessing natural resources of the district and other issues benefiting the denizens.

Earlier, interacting with political and Panchayat leaders from various political parties and public, the Governor appealed to them to rise above political agenda and assist the District Administration in implementation of various welfare programmes. He advised them to stand against corruption.

Parliamentary Secretary cum local MLA Er. Tage Taki and Deputy Commissioner Shri Kemo Lollen briefed the Governor on the challenges and achievements in various sectors in the District.

Representative from Apatani Women Association requested the Governor for a rehabilitation centre at Ziro for mentally challenged individuals.

The representatives from Farmers Association called for Governor's assistance in addressing the challenges of the farmers.
