PRESS RELEASE

Let us, as a society, resolve to offer equal opportunity to each and every child to excel in life: Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd) has extended his heartiest greetings to the children of the State on the occasion of Children's Day, which commemorates the birth anniversary of the first Prime Minister of India Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru.

In his message, the Governor said that today's children are the hope to keep the torch of the national aspirations flashing. This Day is also a reminder to every citizen, every parent and guardian of their inalienable obligation to provide best health and education opportunities for their children. Let us, as a society, resolve today to offer equal opportunity to each and every child to excel in life, he appealed.

On this Day, I pray to Almighty to endow our children with the capability to take our nation forward on the path of progress and prosperity, the Governor said in his message.
