PRESS RELEASE

'Governor conveys greetings to the people on the occasions of Christmas and Good Governance Day

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has conveyed his warm greetings and good wishes to the people of the State on the occasions of Christmas and Good Governance Day.

In his message to the people on the auspicious occasion of Christmas, the Governor said that Christmas, the festival of light and love is the occasion for fraternity, joy and promotion of good will. It is a time to renew our commitment to the well being of society and service to our communities and people. It is a day of resolve for all of us to be just and fair and transparent in our behavior and action and to build up an inclusive social order to secure lasting peace to all. It is also an opportunity to ensure mutual trust and confidence between people of different belief, faith and culture. Lord Jesus' message of peace, brotherhood and affection is for the entire humanity, he said.

Wishing all the fellow citizens, a Merry Christmas, the Governor expressed his hope that the festival of Christmas will spread the motto of tolerance, co-existence and amity in every individual and every group in the country.

The Governor further said that the 25th Day of December, the holy day of Christmas is also being observed by our Nation as Good Governance Day. It commemorates the birthday of Shri Atal Bihari Vajpayee, one of India's distinguished leaders and former Prime Minister.

On the Day of Good Governance, our government reiterates its resolve to provide transparent and accountable administration which works for the betterment and welfare of the last man in the social order (Antyodaya). I am confident that the Good Governance Day will motivate all, our public representatives and government officials in particular, to rise to the expectation of the people through probity, rectitude and efficient Governance, the Governor said in his message.
