PRESS RELEASE

Governor condoles the demise of Raj Bhavan official

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh condoled the demise of Shri Tape Gee, who was working as peon in the Governor Secretariat. Shri Gee died on 22nd January 2018.

In the condolence meeting at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 23rd January, the day of the last rite, the Governor said that Late Gee was a sincere and dedicated staff of Raj Bhawan. His death has caused a great loss not only to his family but also to all in Raj Bhavan.

Leading all in offering prayer for the eternal peace of the departed soul, the Governor said that it is the duty of every member of the Raj Bhavan to ensure that children of Late Gee are taken care of till they stand on their own feet.

The Governor, along with the staff of Raj Bhavan visited the residence of Late Gee and laid wreath on his mortal remains. He also met the family members of Shri Gee. While offering them financial assistance for their immediate use, the Governor consoled them with the utmost sympathy.
