Press Release

Governor extends Nyokum Yullo greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has extended his warm greetings to the people of the State on the festive occasion of Nyokum Yullo. He wished that the festival of the Nyishi brethren brings all gaiety and joy to the community. He is also hopeful that the celebration will continue to carry forward the rich cultural heritage of the Nyishi people.

In his message, the Governor said that the unique and age old indigenous festivals of the people have become a sinew of their cultural existence. Through the festivals, each and every tribe of ours script together their history and legacy. The showcasing of rich ethnic context through cultural presentations, delicious cuisines and exhibitions of exotic traditional practices has made the festivity, a grand binding force for one and all, he further said, while congratulating each and every member of the Nyishi community for carrying forward the tradition of celebrating the Nyokum Yullo.

I join all my Nyishi compatriots in offering my prayers to ‘Nyokum Ane’ for her choicest blessings to all of us, the Governor said in his message.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, February 25, 2018