PRESS RELEASE

Governor meets HRD Minister

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) called on the Union Minister of Human Resource Development (HRD), Government of India Shri Prakash Javadekar in New Delhi on 26th February 2018. The Governor, who is presently on an official tour to the National Capital, discussed various pressing issues in the higher Education in Arunachal Pradesh with the HRD Minister.

The Governor emphasised that those private universities must not be allowed which doesn't meet the standard academic requirement. There must be transparency in establishing private universities, he added.

The Governor, who is the ex-officio President, NERIST Society, briefed the Union Minister issues related to the premier technical institute of the State, North Eastern Regional Institute of Science and Technology, Nirjuli, particularly the vacant post of Director NERIST. The issued was discussed in detail.

The HRD Minister was very positive and early action on issues related to NERIST will be taken to resolve it at the earliest.

Secretary Higher Education, Shri Kewal Kumar Sharma along with senior IAS officials were present on the occasion.
