Governor visits last village in Dibang Valley

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) visited Dembuen, the last village in Dibang Valley District towards international border on 12th March 2018. Accompanied by the First Lady of the State Smt Neelam Misra and Shri S.K. Sharma, DIG, ITBP, the Governor interacted with the villagers, government officials and the Indo Tibetan Border Police personnel posted in the outpost.

The Governor advised the villagers, government officials and personnel of armed forces to motivate and prepare local youth for recruitment in the armed forces. Home grown soldiers are the best soldier for the defence of the national integrity, he added.

The Governor exhorted the ITBP officers and personnel to do their duty with dedication, gallantry, responsibility and bravery. He urged them to secure every inch of the land.

As a token of appreciation of their alertness and encouragement, he presented a cash award for a 'Bara Khana'.

Earlier, Shri W. Inaobi Singh, Second in Command, ITBP, briefed the Governor about the strategic post and the area.
