PRESS RELEASE

Governor conveyed Bohag Bihu Festival greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has conveyed his warm greetings to the people of the State and Assamese community living in the State on the festive occasion of Bohag Bihu festival, also called Rangali Bihu – the festival of colours and merriment, which is observed to celebrate the onset of Assamese New Year all over India. On the joyous occasion, on behalf of the people of the State, the Governor also conveyed greetings to the people of Assam. He expressed his hope that the festivity associated with the festival will herald a happy and prosperous year ahead.

May this year's Bohag Bihu, bring fraternal love, goodwill and affection amongst the people of Arunachal Pradesh and Assam and inspire us to strive for the unity, integrity and solidarity of the nation. May it also bring progress and well being for all of all, the Governor wished in his message.
