Everester Smt Muri Linggi calls on the Governor

Smt Muri Linggi, our Arunachali sister, who recently conquered Mount Everest called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 26th May 2018. She was accompanied by her husband Shri Tamange Mipi.

The Governor congratulated Smt Linggi and said that she made the State and Nation proud by her achievement. He said that conquering Mount Everest, she has proved that our sisters and daughters are tough, courageous, adventurous, enterprising and meritorious.

The Governor said that as a youth icon now, Smt Linggi must work for the upliftment of girl child in the State. Creating awareness on girl education, which is most important step for women empowerment. He advised her to work on Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and ‘Dulari Kanya Yojana’, which aim to bring down the infant mortality in the State and better care of expecting mothers in Arunachal Pradesh.

The Governor also asked Smt Muri Linggi to create awareness to eliminate suicide cases in her Idu Mishmi community.

The Governor wished her success in her future endeavour.

Earlier, Smt Linggi shared her experiences and future plan for mastering Para Gliding and developing adventure sports opportunities in her area.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, May 26, 2018