PRESS RELEASE

Governor extends Christmas Greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh has extended his warm greetings and best wishes to the people of the State on the auspicious occasion of Christmas. The Governor expressed his hope that the festivity will spread the message of benevolence of Lord Jesus Christ and usher-in peace, love and amity throughout the State, Nation and world.

The Governor in his message said that the true spirit of Christmas reflects dedication for helping those in need, for giving hope to those in despair and for security to those who have been uprooted. The joy of Christmas festival renews our commitment to work together in harmony and for better future for all. I am sure that the occasion will instill the spirit of brotherhood in every individual and community, he said.

May this Christmas guide and inspire us to lead life of compassion, empathy, and peace, the Governor wished.
