Governor visits Shi Yomi

Governor asks the people to cooperate with the district administration to build up the infrastructure and amenities

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) visited the newly created District of Shi Yomi on 21st January 2019. The Governor addressed public meetings and interacted with the people at Tato and Mechuka on the day.

In his address, the Governor congratulated the people of Shi Yomi for having the new district and expressed his hope that the creation of the new district will expedite the development process for the people. He said that creation of the new district aims to bring administration to the doorstep of people. He however advised them to put in their best to get over the teething problems in the initial stage.

The Governor asked the people to cooperate with the district administration to build up the infrastructure and amenities for the people. He said that the new District will require road, electricity and internet communication. The people must be active partners in the developmental progress by willingly providing required resources, such as land to the district administration. He also emphasised on health and education development in the District.

Accepting a memorandum from the people of the district, the Governor assured them to take up their issues with the State leadership for the welfare of the people of newly created district.

The Governor stressed on proper utilization of developmental funds with honesty, transparency and accountability.

Later in the afternoon, the Governor met the troops of Indian Army stationed in Shi Yomi. He exhorted them to continue great tradition of Indian Armed Forces in safe guarding the border. The Governor also asked them to motivate local youth to join the Indian Armed Forces.

In the evening, the Governor graced the Sonam Losar Festival celebration and greeted the people on the festive occasion.

Speaking on the occasion, the Governor, who has toured the world said that Mechuka is better than Switzerland. He suggested them to harness the tourism potential of the place. He also advised them to work with unity and make Arunachal Pradesh the best State in the country.

The Governor was accompanied by the First Lady of the State Smt Neelam Misra. Local MLA Shri Passang Dorjee Sona, Deputy Commissioner Shri Mito Dirchi and Superintendent of Police Shri Gothombu Dajangju were present on the occasion amongst others.
