Governor attends Josh Talk programme

Governor exhorts the youth to inculcate honesty, humanism and respect for human dignity

Youth must inculcate the spirit of entrepreneurship and become job providers:
Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) participated in the maiden Josh Talks programme of the State at Rajiv Gandhi University, Itanagar on 22nd February 2019. The programme was organised as part of the Statehood Day celebration by Capital Complex District Administration in collaboration with Rajiv Gandhi University, and Josh Talks, which is one of India's largest impact media platform with to engage the youth of the region.

Speaking on the occasion, the Governor exhorted the youth to inculcate honesty, humanism and respect for human dignity. He also advised them to cultivate grit and determination to succeed in life.

The Governor cautioned the youth against the drug abuse and alcoholism. Drugs and alcohol may give pleasure for some period but in ultimate analysis, it destroys one's own family and kith and kids happiness, he said.

Urging the parents not to delimit the prospects of their children by their conservative idea of advising them to study in order to get job, the Governor emphasised that today's youth must inculcate the spirit of entrepreneurship and become job providers instead of job seekers.

Complimenting the organisers for the 'Josh Talk', the Governor said that the participants in every such event must identify some motivating and inspiring thoughts to carry home.

Rajiv Gandhi University Vice Chancellor, Prof Saket Kushwaha and Founder Josh Talks Shri Shobhit Banga also spoke on the occasion.

Social activist and crusader against drug abuse Smt Jaya Tasung Moyong, International Karate Performer Artist Inspector P. Nobin Jomoh, successful entrepreneur and tour operator Shi Oken Tayeng, acclaimed violinist of the State Shri Phil Jamja and child actor Martin Rey Tangu shared their experiences.

First Lady of the State Smt Neelam Mishra, NIT Director Prof. Pinakeswar Mahanta, Capital Complex Deputy Commissioner Shri Prince Dhawan, Papum Pare Superintendent of Police Shri Tumme Amo, along with students of Rajiv Gandhi University, National Institute of Technology, Arunachal Pradesh, Dera Natung Government College, Itanagar, Don Bosca Collage, Jollang and Rajiv Gandhi Government Polytechnic Collage also were present in the programme.
