Governor condoles the demise of Chatung

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd) has condoled the sudden demise of senior journalist Shri Taro Chatung. Mourning the irreparable loss, the Governor said that in the demise of Shri Chatung, the State of Arunachal Pradesh has lost one of the pioneers in the fields of electronic journalism and film making.

"I wish to express my deepest condolences to his family, the media fraternity especially those he worked with. May his soul rest in eternal peace," the Governor said.
