PRESS RELEASE

Governor extends greetings to Divyang

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has extended his warm greetings to the differently-abled people of the State, as also of other parts of the country and the world on the special occasion of International Day of Persons with Disabilities. He expressed his hope that the celebration of the Day will create awareness for the cause of the differently-abled for promoting their dignity, safety, security, rights, and equal opportunity for progress in society.

In his message, the Governor said that humane attitudes play an important role in promoting 'Divyang' people in social life and economic field. This must start from within the family and extend to society. He called upon each and every section of the society to do their bit in securing proper rehabilitation to the differently-abled people and encourage them to be performers.

The Governor further stated that mental inhibition and not the physical disability is the most difficult hurdle for the differently-abled people to overcome. Therefore, as a matter of necessity, the differently-abled people must inculcate mental robustness and spirit to be achiever. Building up of self-confidence and optimism are the cornerstones which make them accomplisher, he said.

On this important day, let us seek and identify the abilities of the differently-abled persons and promote them. Today, we reiterate our resolve to discharge our moral, social and constitutional responsibility to treat our disabled brethren with indulgence and compassion, he Governor said in his message.
