

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Governor condoles the demise of former Chief Secretary

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd) has condoled the demise of former Chief Secretary of the State Shri Matin Dai.

In a condolence letter to Ms Mamang Dai, daughter of Late Matin Dai, the Governor expressed shock and grief. He said that Late Dai, a distinguished administrator, was one of the first generation administrative officers from the State. In his departure, the State has lost the man, who tended the State through its nascent Stage.

The Governor said that Late Dai was a highly distinguished public servant and a respected bureaucrat, who made important contributions towards the development of Arunachal Pradesh. His simple lifestyle, high moral values and persevering working methodology did and will continue to inspire the civil servants in their duties.

In this hour of crisis, I, join all Arunachalis to pray to the Almighty to give fortitude to you and your family members to bear the irreparable loss, the Governor said.

On behalf of the people of Arunachal Pradesh and on my own behalf, I convey our sincere and heartfelt condolences on the demise of Shri Matin Dai and pray to Almighty Donyi Polo for eternal peace for his soul, the Governor said.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, February 1, 2020