Governor conveys Christmas Greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has conveyed his warm greetings to the people of the State on the auspicious occasion of Christmas, which is observed all over the world. He expressed his hope that the festive occasion ushers-in peace, love and tranquillity throughout the State, Nation and world.

In his message to the people, the Governor said that Christmas marks the birth of Jesus Christ in Bethlehem. It has been a powerful symbol of hope for a better future for its followers. Christmas marks a moment to pause, to reflect and believe in the possibilities of a new beginning and new dedication of mankind to humanism. It also promotes goodwill and realization of the sense of joy among people in accordance with the purposes of God. As we celebrate this special occasion and look forward to the coming New Year, I hope that in months to come we shall be able to find will and ways to strengthen our communities to contribute for a better future for all and above every niche for more vibrant and progressive Arunachal Pradesh, he said.

On this festive occasion, let us also resolve to beat back the threat of COVID19 pandemic by observing all necessary precautions and protocols against the deadly Corona virus, the Governor said in his message.

PRO to Governor
