Governor conveys Reh Festival greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) conveyed his warm greetings to the people of the State in general and to Idu Mishmi Fold in particular who celebrate Reh as one of their important festivals on the auspicious occasion of Reh, He expressed his hope that the occasion will herald a year of prosperity and tranquillity.

In his message, the Governor said that Idu Mishmi Tribe is one of the most culturally rich tribes of Arunachal Pradesh. Their age-old traditions and ethnicity are unique and extraordinary. I am sanguine that the celebration of this festival will help in further propagating and preserving the cultural identity of the Idu Mishmi tribe, he said.

On this sacred occasion, I join my Idu Mishmi people in offering our prayers to Divine Mother 'Nanyi Initaya' to evoke her choicest blessings, the Governor said in his message.
