Governor conveys Guru Nanak Jayanti greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has conveyed his sincere greetings to the people of the State on the auspicious occasion of Guru Nanak Dev Jayanti.

In his message, the Governor said that Guru Nanak Dev ji preached love, peace, truth and devotion. His divine ideals of humanity, equality and brotherhood have inspired all to be better individuals and shown the path of social harmony and unity. Guru Nanak Dev ji's supreme power-centred teachings had strong social implications. He was critical of hypocrisy and ostentation in religious practices. He emphasised on purity of words and deeds. This occasion, therefore, promotes Guru Nanak Dev's messages of spirituality, purity, justice, devotion and goodness amongst the people, the Governor said.

On this sacred occasion, I join my Sikh brethren in offering prayer to Almighty for peace and prosperity in the society, the Governor said in his message.
