MESSAGE

On the joyous occasion of Tamladu, I extend my sincere greetings to all the people of Arunachal Pradesh. I hope the festivity heralds new height of peace and prosperity.

The celebration of the festival not only brings the community members together but also helps in carrying forward our age-old cultural heritage and customs. Let us be proud of our rich customs and traditions and our cultural diversity. While preparing ourselves for embracing a golden future, let us continue to be firmly rooted in our glorious past.

On the auspicious occasion, I offer my prayers to Almighty Jebmalu for his choicest blessings for all.

Gen JJ Singh,
