MESSAGE

On the festive occasion of Bohag Bihu, I extend my best wishes and festival greetings to all Arunachalees and in particular, to our Assamese brethren.

Bohag Bihu brings the promise of growth and prosperity. The biggest festival of the Assamese community marks the beginning of the sowing season. It heralds the coming of spring and thus marks the advent of the Assamese New Year. Bohag Bihu, which is also known as Rongoli Bihu is also synonymous as Festival of Dance and Merriment.

May this festival strengthen the commitment for a harmonious and warm fellow-feeling among all the citizens of Arunachal Pradesh.

Gen JJ Singh,
PVSM, AVSM, VSM (Retd)
