

Press Release No 1084

Chief Minister calls on the Governor

Itanagar, Nov. 3: Arunachal Pradesh Chief Minister Nabam Tuki called on the Governor General (Retd.) J.J. Singh at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 3rd November 2011 last.

In the meeting, the Governor reviewed the overall situation in the State with the Chief Minister, including the law and order and development projects.

The Governor, who has been closely monitoring all the on-going projects in the State, especially those under Prime Minister's package emphasized on giving momentum to the development process. He also stressed on socio economic development in the rural areas and augmentation of tourism sector. Concerned about the unemployed youth, the Governor advised the Chief Minister on creation of jobs through public private partnership and self help groups and encouragement to tourism and handicrafts.

Presenting a 'Team Arunachal' badge to Tuki, General Singh asked to him to maintain the 'Team Arunachal' spirit and provide dynamic stewardship to the State.

The Chief Minister, who visited Seppa earlier in the day, briefed the Governor on the Seppa incident. The Governor appreciated the Chief Minister for the immediate relief provided to the affected families of unfortunate Seppa accident. He also praised Tuki for his personal commitment to restore the hanging bridge within a time frame, reports PRO to Governor

Sd/- Ome Tayeng, Asst. PRO