Governor greets on Children's day

ITANAGAR, November 14: State Governor General (Rtd) J.J Singh extended greetings to the people especially young children on the special occasion of Children's Day, which is the birth anniversary of Late Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of India.

The Governor said, 'Children are the future of a country and their moral and educational standards determine the progress of a nation. The welfare of our children is a national priority. Therefore, it is our prime duty to provide our children quality education and best upbringing to secure a successful future for them and for ourselves'. On the occasion, he made an appeal to all parents and guardians to instill good morals and virtues in their wards and groom them to be responsible citizens of the country and pledge to ensure a safer wholesome environment and a healthier lifestyle for the children, reports PRO to Governor.
