

PRESS RELEASE.

Governor Condoles Assam boat Tragedy Deaths

Itanagar, May1: His Excellency the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, General (Retired) J.J. Sing has expressed grief and shock over the death of many valuable lives in a boat Tragedy at the Brahmaputra River, in Dubhri district of Assam on Monday, where over 200 people are reportedly drowned.

The Governor has extended his heartfelt condolences to the Governor of Assam, J.B. Patnaik, Chief Minister of Assam Tarun Gogoi, and the people of Assam on this tragic incident.

While praying that such incidents do not re-occur in future ever, the Governor has also offered all necessary help and cooperation in relief and rescue works from the state of Arunachal Pradesh.

Sd/-
Denga Bengia, PRO,
Rajbhavan, Itanagar.