ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma and First Lady of the State Smti Jyotsna Sharma enrolled their particulars in the Sixth Economic Census at Raj Bhawan, Itanagar on 5th June 2013. The district administration and the Census enumeration team led by Shri J. Bomjen EAC, Itanagar conducted the enumeration and facilitated the first couple in filling up of the census form. The enumeration is part of the month-long Economic Census, which is being conducted in the State from 25th May 2013 to 24th June 2013.

The Governor has appealed to people to the State to extend all necessary cooperation for successful conduct of the enumeration.

The Governor appreciated the officers and officials engaged in census operation and advised them to take up the work with sincerity and dedication.

Secretary to Governor and Planning Shri Ankur Garg, who is also Secretary Economics and Statistics, was present during the enumeration.

Dr. S.B. Biswas, Deputy Director, Directorate of Economics & Statistics informed that the enumeration will help in providing basic data for the purpose of planning, development, administration and for improving the estimates of State income and related aggregates and also to fill the data gap in the unorganized sector of the economy. Deputy Director further added that 215 Charge Officers, 600 Supervisors and 3000 enumerators are involved in the month-long exercise.
