

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

General Officer Commanding of 3 Corps Lt. Gen Arun Kumar Sahni called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma at Raj Bhawan, Itanagar on 8th July 2013. They discussed on various key issues including security and road communication in the meeting.

The Governor, who had toured Changlang and Tirap districts just after being sworn-in as the Governor of the State advised the Corps Commander to be proactive to ensure effective law and order in eastern districts of Changlang, Tirap and Longding.

Sharing his experiences in addressing such subversive situations in northeast region, the Governor opined that welfare programmes by the Army for the local people will add significantly towards cultivating harmonized relationship with them. He also called for more OP Good Samaritan projects by the Army.

The Governor asked the Corps Commander to exhort his officers and personnel to have proper coordination with district authorities.

While underscoring the importance of road communication in the State the Governor stressed on expediting the road projects under Border Road Organisation. He also emphasized on timely implementation and quality assurance of the road projects.

It is pertinent to mention here that in the last fortnight, the Governor has interacted with chief engineers of all the BRO projects working in the State.
