

PRESS RELEASE

GOVERNOR FELICITATED UPSC ACHIEVERS

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma felicitated the UPSC achievers of the year (Civil Service Examination 2012) at Raj Bhawan, Itanagar on 27th August 2013. Five candidates from Arunachal Pradesh have cleared UPSC examination this year.

Congratulating the candidates and their parents, the Governor expressed his hope that younger generations will maintain the spirit and continue the tempo. The State is proud of them.

Governor called upon the successful candidates to take a vow that each successful invitee will motivate at least five other Civil Service aspirants. He advised them to be force multipliers.

Former member of the Union Public Service Commission, Lt. Gen. Sharma, who presided over many interview boards and Departmental Promotion Committees pointed out that a candidate needs to be focused on success. He added that along with it, hard work and motivation can ensure success. The Governor said that parents and other family members have big roles to play.

While suggesting for State run coaching centres for the Civil Service aspirants, Governor emphasized on adequate incentive for the civil service aspirants.

Guardians of the successful candidates, who were present on the occasion, expressed their gratitude to the Governor for facilitating the candidates. They said that such an initiative by the Raj Bhawan will definitely inspire many others in the State.

First Lady of the State Smti Jyotsna Sharma, Dr. Radhe, Tallo, (IRS - C&CE) Shri C.E. Gohain, father of Shri Ngikya Gohain (IAS), Shri Marpak Chiram and his wife, parents of Shri Jimmy Chiram (IPS), Ms J Kamgo, sister of Shri Jumin Kamki, (IRS-C&CE) and Shri Tato Gongo, father of Dr. Tojum Gongo, (IDES) were present in the function along with other guardians and officials.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, August 27, 2013