

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

GOVERNOR CONVEYS CHINGDANG FESTIVAL GREETINGS

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma has conveyed warm greetings to the people of the State on the auspicious occasion of Chingdang festival. He has expressed his hope that the festivity will usher-in peace, good harvest and prosperity for all.

In his festival message, the Governor said that Chingdang is the most popular festival of the Sajolang community. During the festival, the community not only worships the deities but also the nature for the wellbeing of mankind. Such traditions and practices of the tribal communities have always helped in the continuation of the treasured cultural heritage as well as in the preservation the flora and fauna.

Joining the Sajolang community on the occasion in offering prayers to Almighty to bless each one with choicest blessings, the Governor has expressed his confidence that along with the festivity, the festival will continue in conserving the green environment.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, October 14, 2013