

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Governor conveys Indigenous Faith Day greetings

Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma has conveyed warm greetings to the people of Arunachal Pradesh on the occasion of Indigenous Faith Day and expressed his hope that the occasion will further strengthen the indigenous faiths of the State.

In his message, Governor said that Arunachal Pradesh is a cultural mosaic owing to different indigenous faiths and practices along with both sects of Buddhism, Hinduism and Christianity and other religions. Special occasion like this will provide opportunity for better understanding of the different faiths of the State and motivate all for honest and genuine engagements between people from very different faiths. It will also reinforce our distinctive Indian cultural characteristic which always has been 'Unity in Diversity'.

Joining all the indigenous communities on the special occasion, Governor offered prayer to Almighty for His choicest blessings.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, November 30, 2013