ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

The Union Minister of State (Home) Shri Kiren Rijiju called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma at New Delhi on 10th June 2014.

During the meeting, they discussed recent developments in internal as well as international affairs concerning Arunachal Pradesh and law and order incidences in the State.

Congratulating him in person, the Governor expressed his confidence that Shri Rijiju will rise to the expectations of the people and deliver to meet their hopes and aspirations, especially the people of the North East Region.

A former Army officer, who was part of the Sino-Indian Working Group, and had coordinated counter-insurgency operations in the North East with civil agencies and also worked with inter-ministerial delegations, the Governor shared ideas on strengthening the law and order in the State and North East Region.
