

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Shri Nabum Tuki was sworn-in as the Chief Minister of Arunachal Pradesh for the second consecutive time as the Chief Minister of the State in an impressive ceremony at Darbar Hall, Raj Bhavan on 18th May 2014.

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma, who in exercising the powers conferred by Article 164(1) of the Constitution of India had earlier appointed Shri Tuki to the office of the Chief Minister, administered the oath of office and secrecy.

All India Congress Committee Central Observer and senior Congress leader Shri Luizinho Faleiro along with State Congress Party Chief Shri Mukut Mithi were present on the occasion.

Elected members to the sixth Legislative Assembly of Arunachal Pradesh, senior bureaucrats, former Political leaders, special guests and invitees along with entire media fraternity witnessed the function.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, May 18, 2014