

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

On the occasion of the Bharat Scouts and Guides foundation day, which is observed as 'Flag Day', a flag sticker of the scouting movement was presented to the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General Nirbhay Sharma at Raj Bhawan, Itanagar on 7th November 2014.

The Governor conveyed his good wishes to all the Scouts and Guides of the State and Nation on the special occasion. He said that the Bharat Scouts and Guides movement has been doing a good work in instilling self-confidence and sense of inquisitiveness in the young students. It also promotes team spirit and patriotism amongst them. The Scouts and Guides movement's activities blend with environment, therefore it helps in preservation of the flora and fauna. He pointed that values and ideals inculcated in young ages remains with the person for lifelong. The chief patron of the Scouting movement in the State expressed his hope that more and more children will be drawn to the movement.

The Governor advised the Scouts and Guides movement officials for more Scouts and Guides activities, with special focus on cleanliness drive in the line of Swatchchh Bharat Abhiyan. He emphasized that they should ensure to create a better environment for the future generations.

Earlier, Shri BP Gupta, State Scout Organiser briefed the Governor on the occasion and activities of Bharat Scouts and Guides in the State.

State Guide Organiser Smt C Lowang, Assistant State Training Commissioner Shri P.Kalita and Smt P. Pakam along with number of Scouts and Guides were present on the occasion.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, November 7, 2014