

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma has conveyed warm greetings and blessings to all the children of the State on the special occasion of Children's Day, which commemorates the birth anniversary of Pundit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of India.

In his message, the Governor said that Pundit Nehru worked passionately for the welfare of children and youngsters. He took keen interest in their welfare, education, and development. Pundit Nehru knew that values and disciplines learned as a child are responsible for the kind of adulthood one has. Therefore, he visualized the nurturing and welfare of children as a national priority.

The Governor expressed hope that the day will server as a reminder to all renew the commitment towards the welfare of children and let the children live by Nehruji's ideals.

Exhorting the people to give their best to the children, the Governor emphasized that by providing our children the opportunities to excel and imbibe good values, we nurture for a better future for all.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, November 13, 2014