PRESS RELEASE

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma has extended warm greetings to the members of the media fraternity of Arunachal Pradesh on the occasion of National Press Day. The Governor expressed hope that the occasion will inspire them to maintain highest standards of professionalism and constructive journalism.

In his message, the Governor said that Media is the nerve of the society. It plays a vital role in dissemination of information to the masses based on facts and truth. Being proactive and partners in developmental programmes, media has been motivating people to work towards a just and corruption free society and developed nation. It has safeguarded the freedom of speech and expression, which is the soul of democracy.

The Governor said that media in Arunachal Pradesh has shown its commitment to truth, pursuits of democracy, fairness and objectivity. It has ensured that the happenings in society are correctly reflected and important issues involving young, women and sensitive social ones are providing much required attention. It has truly become the 'Voice of the every Arunachalee.'

The Governor wished that media in the State and country continues its excellent service towards the society, downtrodden, women and children and environment for a better and progressive tomorrow for all.
