PRESS RELEASE

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma addressed the students and officials who will be participating in the All India Students' camp for national integration, Rajkot, Gujarat at Bharat Scouts and Guides Headquarters, Polo Colony, Naharlagun on 23rd December 2014. Chief Secretary Shri Ramesh Negi, Secretary Education, Shri RK Mishra, Secretary to Governor Shurbir Singh, officials of the education department and Bharat Scouts and Guides were present on the occasion.

Speaking on the occasion, the Governor said that it is good exposure and opportunity for the students, many of whom have not even gone to other districts of the State. He asked the participants to learn about other States, their people, language, food habits and way of life. At the same time, be a true ambassador of the State. Tell the students from other States about Arunachal Pradesh, its people, the age-old tribal cultural heritage and rich traditions and treasured flora and fauna. He also advised them to be disciplined and proactive during the camp.

Conveying his good wishes to the participants, the Governor emphasised on creating a lifelong association with participants from various part of the country. He advised the students to avail maximum benefit out of the camp, and said, when you come back, the State will benefit from you, as you are the future of Arunachal Pradesh.

The Governor expressed hope that such interaction will help the future generation, the youth to learn more about each other. It will create better attachment and acquaintance amongst people of different parts of the country, which needs to be strengthened as on date.

The Governor complimented the State Government, particularly Education Department for sending the students to the Camp. He advised to escorts and officials to take utmost care of the students during the journey.

One hundred and forty-nine participants, including seventeen officials from sixteen districts will be participating in the All India Students' camp for national integration , the 17th Rashtrakatha Sibir at Rajkot from 27th December 2014 to 4th January 2015.
