

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma met the leaders of various faiths at Raj Bhawan, Itanagar on 9th January 2015. First Lady of the State Smt Jyotsna Sharma and Secretary to Governor Shri Shurbir Singh were also present on the occasion.

Interacting with the representatives of various faiths, the Governor said that the greatest gift of all the faiths is being a good human being. Therefore, all believers must promote humanism and harmony in society. The Governor wished that such endeavour create bond for a more cohesive society.

The Governor said that State of Arunachal Pradesh is the best example of communal harmony. He emphasised that it should be maintained and strengthened. He urged upon the believers of various faiths to understand and learn more about each other.

The Governor advised the leaders of the various faiths to have more interactions among them. He also asked them to contribute towards social sector, particularly health and education, while they strive towards preserving their religious values.

The representatives briefed the Governor and First Lady on the endeavour of their respective religious groups in the State.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, January 9, 2015