PRESS RELEASE

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma condoled the sudden demise of former minister and speaker Shri Setong Sena.

In his condolence message, the Governor said that in the demise of Late Sena, the State has lost one of the few great Parliamentarian and adept administrator. Late Sena, with grace and elegance had immensely contributed lots towards the development of the State in various capacities particularly as the Speaker of State Legislative Assembly and Cabinet minister. His strong sense of social commitment for the upliftment of the under-privileged and the down-trodden had touched hearts of people.

Conveying sincere and heartfelt condolence and praying for eternal peace of the departed soul, the Governor said that one of the most respected leaders of Changlang, Tirap and Longding, Late Sena left his mark through his various initiatives, including Pangsau Pass Festival, revival of Stillwell Road and revamping agriculture and allied sectors.

People of the State will always cherish his inerasable contributions and his gracious approach, the Governor added.
