

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

The women wing members of Adi Bane Kebang led by its President Smt Yalem Taga Burang called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. Gen (Retd) Nirbhay Sharma and First Lady of the State Smt Jyotsna Sharma at Raj Bhawan, Itanagar on 26th February 2015. The women volunteers of the ABK apprised the Governor and First Lady of the State the challenges of the society particularly drug addiction and alcoholism amongst the youth in East Siang and Upper Siang Districts.

Interacting with the members, the Governor commended the effort of the women wing of Adi Bane Kebang. He said that a collective effort and voice must be there for better future of youth of Arunachal Pradesh. Stake is very high and civil society has a vital role to play. The media has its role too.

The Governor advised them to continue to contribute towards society and at the same time monitor it.

Earlier, briefing on the endeavour of the women wing of Adi Bane Kebang, Smti Burang requested the Governor and First Lady of the State for a de-addiction centre at Pasighat with proper medical and security facilities. She also briefed on alarming cases of drug addiction and alcoholism in the districts.

Secretary to Governor Shri Shurbir Singh, Smt Nanom Jamoh, Chief Advisor, Adi Bane Kebang (Women Wing), members including Smt Opak Takuk Ering, Smt Jaya Tasung Moyong, Smt Outy Takuk, Smt Oyi Darang Gao, and Dr. Runi Tasung along with Muskaan Welfare Society members Dr. Jennifer Tayeng and Ar. Kobby Bagra were present on the occasion.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, February 26, 2015