

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Union Minister for Road Transport & Highways, Shri Nitin Gadkari called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Lt. General Nirbhay Sharma (Retd) at Raj Bhawan, Itanagar on 30th April 2015. They discussed on road communication and its impacts in the developmental process of the State.

The Governor emphasised on expediting the road projects in the State. Citing slow progress of road works, he called for personal attention of the Union Minister on the projects in view of its strategic importance. The Governor said that these roads can bring huge economic prosperity in Arunachal Pradesh.

The Governor also thanked the Union Minister for dedicating the 32.50 km Stilwell road section from Jairampur to Pangsung Pass in the Indo-Myanmar border to the nation and laying the foundation stones for six 2-laning road projects in different parts of the State.
