

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

STATE BIDS FAREWELL TO GOVERNOR LT. GENERAL NIRBHAY SARMA

'I love you all, Jai Arunachal' was the parting words of outgoing Governor Lt. General Nirbhay Sharma (Retd) to people of Arunachal Pradesh as he left for Mizoram from Itanagar on 25th May 2015.

Chief Minister Shri Nabam Tuki, his cabinet colleagues, Speaker of State Legislative Assembly Shri Nabam Rebia, senior officers of the State Government and many well-wishers turned up at Raj Bhawan Helipad to see off the outgoing governor and his wife Smti Jyotsna Sharma.

Guard of Honour by Arunachal Pradesh Police commanded by DySP Jummar Basar was presented to him on the occasion.

Earlier in the morning, officers and staff of Governor's Secretariat and Raj Bhawan led by Secretary to Governor Shri Shurbir Singh bid a touching farewell to the Governor and First lady. As a mark of respect and honour, the officers and staff pulled a decorated jeep carrying the Governor and First Lady from Raj Bhawan to Helipad. Cultural troupes from various tribes of the State lined both sides of road as flower petals were showered on the path.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, May 25, 2015