PRESS RELEASE

The first lady of the State Smt Rita Rajkhowa, Chairperson Muskaan Welfare Society (MWS) visited the Oju Mission, Naharlagun on 23rd June 2015. She was accompanied by the MWS members.

On her maiden visit to the centre, she interacted with the children of the Shishu Grah (orphanage), school children and inmates of short stay home. As a token, she donated food items on the occasion.

The First Lady was pleased to learn about the endeavour of the institute and the dedication showed by its staff. She said that the love and affection that she received on the visit day was like a treasure which she will always cherish. Praying for the good health of Oju Welfare Association's founder Padma Shri Bini Yanga, she commended her for carrying forward the work of service to the humanity with devotion.

While interacting with the trainees of tailoring and beauty parlour courses, she urged them to be sincere and to try to become financially self dependent. On a personal note the chairperson added that she too is fond of tailoring and still pursue it as a hobby.

Earlier, welcoming the First Lady, the tiny tots of Oju Mission School and the inmates of short stay home had presented a colourful cultural program, where Director State Resource Centre for Adult Education, Shri P. Deori briefed on the institute and its works.
