ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa, accompanied by First Lady of the State Smt Rita Rajkhowa visited Jawaharlal Nehru State Museum and Itafort on 27th June 2015. He reviewed the places of tourist interest in Itanagar and advised that concerned department to create more awareness amongst the people about archaeological sites to preserve the invaluable assets.

While advising on improving the State Museum, the Governor suggested for proper air-conditioning and improving lighting system in the museum.

The Governor, who was very impressed by the State Museum, said that it is very informative reflecting various tribes and their cultural assets and traditions. He stressed on the data being more definitive. Taking cue from experts, the Governor suggested that Archaeology and Museum should be headed by separate heads.

During the visit to the State Museum and Ita Fort, the Research Director, Shri Batem Pertin along with his officers briefed the Governor.

Earlier, on the day the First Couple visited the Itanagar Buddhist Gompa and offered prayers. On being briefed by the Rev Lamas on the Gompa and its compound, the Governor suggested for developing security measures by district administration and Police to maintain the sanctity of the place and thereby not discouraging the visitors from unruly elements.
