PRESS RELEASE

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has condoled the sudden demise of the one of the renowned and popular singers of the State, Marto Kamdak.

In his condolence message to Late Kamdak's wife Smt Karnya Basar Kamdak, the Governor said that Late Kamdak was an accomplished vocalist and multi-talented, who enthralled audiences with his songs in various indigenous languages, including Assamese. In his death, the State has lost one of its most talented artists. However, Late Kamdak's legacy will live on through the many songs he sang.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences and convey the same to the rest of your family members. I pray to the Almighty Donyi Polo to give you and other members of your family the strength and courage to bear this irreparable loss, the Governor said in his message.
