PRESS RELEASE

Governor extends Raksha Bandhan Greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has extended his warm greetings and good wishes to the people of the State on the auspicious occasion of Raksha Bandhan. The Governor wished that the occasion will continue to spread universal love and peace in the world. He hope that the festive occasion will strengthen the endearing bond among all communities and groups and help all in the collective endeavour to work for the well-being of one and all.

May this happy occasion rekindle our resolve to work for safeguarding our sisters, daughters and mothers from all evil eyes, the Governor wished in his message.

PRO to Governor
