PRESS RELEASE

Be part of Team Arunachal in promoting Arunachal Tourism: Governor

The representatives of Parashuram Dham Seva Ashram, based in Parashuram Kund, Wakro, Lohit District, one of the most famous pilgrimage and religious centres of the State called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa at Raj Bhawan, Itanagar on 30th September 2015.

Interacting with the Parashuram Dham Seva Ashram members, the Governor exhorted them to be part of Team Arunachal in promoting Arunachal Tourism based on religious importance. He advised them to avail benefits from important tourism related schemes of Government of India, including PRASAD- Pilgrimage Rejuvenation and Spiritual Augmentation Drive. It may be mentioned that lakhs of pilgrims come to Parashuram Kund, Wakro every year during Makar Sankranti.

Earlier, the team led by Sri Kirti Prasad Chaliha and Shri Soto Thali, submitted a ten-point memorandum to improve the religious centre, including registration of the society, land allotment, road communication, power supply and railway connectivity.
