

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Follow Gandhiji's path of truth and non-violence: Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has extended warm greetings to the people of the State on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti. He expressed hope that the birth anniversary of the Father of the Nation Mahatma Gandhi (Mohan Das Karam Chand Gandhi) would strengthen the spirit of unity among all the people across the Globe and promote universal peace and tolerance.

In his message on the occasion, the Governor said that Mahatma Gandhi is the embodiment of peace and non-violence. Gandhi ji's path of Ahimsa and his commitment to democracy and humanity are universal and are revered throughout the World. As an honour to this greatest son of India, the United Nations had declared Birthday of Gandhiji as International Day of Non-violence in 2007. Gandhiji's ideals have inspired us to stand resolutely against any challenge and to work for the eradication of poverty, illiteracy, oppression and discrimination, he added.

On this momentous occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, I appeal to all my beloved fellow denizens of Arunachal Pradesh to follow the path of truth and non-violence and rededicate ourselves towards peace, tolerance and harmony, with a high sense of universal brotherhood, in order to build up a strong, vibrant and prosperous India, the Governor said in his message.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, October 1, 2015