

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

For our better future, let us give our best to our children today for a better tomorrow: Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa along with the First Lady of the State Smt Rita Rajkhowa have extended their heartiest greetings to the people of the State, particularly the children, on the occasion of Children's Day, which commemorates the Birth Anniversary of the first Prime Minister of India, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.

In his message on the special occasion, the Governor has appealed to every parent, guardian and citizen to provide ample opportunities to the children to excel in every field of activities, topmost being study and instil good values in them, so that they can become confident, knowledgeable human being with compassion for the weaker sections and contribute towards nation building tomorrow. He said that nurturing an approach of 'Service before Self' in the children is one of the greatest gifts one can give them. While renewing our obligation, commitment and responsibilities towards the welfare of every child of the State, let us strive to build a harmonious society and thereby ensuring their proper up-bringing, he added.

For our better future, let us give our best to our children today for a better tomorrow. Let us all keep in mind that 'the Child is Father of the Man' and accordingly celebrate the Children's Day together, the Governor exhorted in his message.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, November 13, 2015