

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Governor to appeals for reinforce the spirit of Communal Harmony, National Integration

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has conveyed his warm greetings to the people of the State on the occasion of 'Qaumi Ekta Week'. The Governor expressed his hope that the weeklong celebration launched all over India by the Ministry of Home Affairs, Govt. of India, will highlight the inherent strength and resilience of the Nation to withstand actual and potential threats to the eclectic and secular fabric of the country and nurture a spirit of communal harmony in its larger sense. He also believes that the occasion will provide an opportunity to people of the State to reaffirm age old traditions and faith in the values of tolerance, co-existence and brotherhood in a multi-cultural and multi-religious society.

The Governor has appealed to the people of the State to foster and reinforce the spirit of Communal Harmony, National Integration and take pride in vibrant, composite culture and nationhood.

In the backdrop of recent terrorist attacks in Paris, the Governor advised the Government Offices and other Organisations to celebrate the Weeklong Programme in a befitting manner so that the message of Communal Harmony and National integration reaches to every part of the State and society and all kinds of violence and acts of terrorism are fought unitedly for maintaining peace and communal harmony.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, November 19, 2015